"THE FEUDISTS"

TWO REEL VITAGRAPH COMEDY. With JOHN BUNNY, FLORA FINCH and LILLIAN WALKER.

Two families get into a quarrel over chickens and the seedlings they scratch up. A spite fence is built between their respective yards. The only members of the families who do not help in the warfare are the eldest son of the one family, and the eldest daughter of the other. These two young people are hopelessly in love with one another and have many stolen kisses over the top of the fence.

A small incident causes the warfare to be suddenly redoubled and a free for all fight between the families follows. By knocking over the beehives, the young man is able to drive both families to take refuge in the barn, where he locks them up. He then demands permission to marry the girl he loves and refuses to deliver anyone from bondage until he shall get it, which he does. The two families issue from the barn the best of friends and hasten to tear down the spite fence and renew their former friendly relations with one another.

The third tonight will be:

LOCAL INTEREST IN BIG SERIES

Gettysburg Watches Closely the World's Series Championship Games. Eddie Plank's Work Matter of General Local Concern.

Interest in the World's Series baseball games is perhaps at a higher pitch in Gettysburg than in any small town in the country. The home of Eddie Plank is watching keenly every development in the greatest event in America's sporting circles, and on every side is the hope expressed that "Eddie" may figure prominently in the games and may have a share in bringing the championship honors to the Athletics.

All predictions for the first game were to the effect that Bender would be used against Mathewson and this was somewhat disappointing to Gettysburg fans who want, more than anything else, to see Plank pitch against the New York wonder and to win. It is possible that he may be given the opportunity before the end of the series.

Many Gettysburg people are planning to see one or all of the games and some of them are already on the ground. Others expect to go on the special train Wednesday when it is confidently believed they will have a chance to see Eddie in action. Those who stay at home are making arrangements to receive the news of the games, play by play, as was done two years ago. Every ball pitched will be announced a few minutes afterward in the Square in front of Stallsmith's News-stand and no small degree of satisfaction will be had in this way.

Betting on a small scale is going on here as in other years and, from the odds offered, it is found that the general sentiment named the New York Giants as the winners of the first game, with the Athletics winning the second on their home grounds.

No matter how the series goes, it is now the plan to give Eddie Plank a complimentary banquet soon after its close. Efforts are on foot to get Connie Mack and Ban Johnson here for the occasion and the event, which is to be held at the Eagle Hotel, will attract a hundred or more admirers and enthusiasts.

POSES FOR STATUE

Member of Bucktail Regiment to Perpetuate Own Memory.

To perpetuate his memory after he is dead Melville H. Freas, a 73-year-old veteran of the famous "Bucktail" Regiment in the Civil War, sat Monday in Philadelphia in his old war uniform and regalia while a sculptor started work with him as a model for a granite statue, 11 feet tall. Mr. Freas has been a frequent visitor to Gettysburg.

The statue will be placed on the burial lot in Ivy Hill Cemetery, where Freas expects to be buried some day. It will be erected by the side of a tall gravestone, inscribed with Freas' name, date of birth and war record, which he had erected on his own grave three years ago.

The veteran hopes to have the statue ready for unveiling next Memorial Day. Mr. Freas usually celebrates the day by going to the cemetery and to the spot where a gravestone marks what will be his last resting place and firing a salute in memory of four comrades who died in a Confederate prison.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS

Mrs. Charles Wolf, of East Berlin, is Badly Hurt.

Tripping and falling down a flight of stairs Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Wolf, of East Berlin, sustained a simple fracture of the left leg above the knee. At the time she fell, it was feared her injuries were of a more serious nature. Dr. Lau was summoned and reduced the fracture. The condition of the woman is reported as somewhat improved. She is about fifty-five years old.

LIKELY TO ISSUE 2000 LICENSES

Applications for Hunters' Licenses Coming in at the Rate of Fifty a Day. Four Women Take out Permits Many Tall Men.

County Treasurer Spangler reports the hunters' license business brisk in Adams county. For the past several weeks the treasurer and his assistant have been kept busy questioning applicants for licenses and transferring the names into the big record book which shows the sex, age, height, and what the color of the hair and eyes of each applicant is. Up until today 650 licenses had been issued and it is probable that by the end of the season the 2,000 mark will be nearly reached. They are coming in now at the rate of fifty a day.

Three Adams County hunters, taking out licenses, have passed the age of seventy and one of them, William Eyster, of Menallen township, gave his age as 77. James P. Stem, of Hamilton township is 75 and W. W. Padlock, of Fairfield is 71.

Four Adams County women have taken out hunters' licenses: Mrs. Katie Shepard, of Franklin township; Miss Beatrice A. Kohl, of Franklin township; Mrs. Minnie Bair, of Gettysburg; Miss A. M. Dubbs, of Highland township.

A number of the hunters give their heights as six feet but the tallest applicant for license so far is Ralph Long, of Mt. Pleasant township, who announced his stature in hunting outfit as six feet, six inches. Other tall hunters in this county are Elmer Myers, 6 feet, 2 1/2 inches; Horace Smiley, Gettysburg, 6 feet, 1 inch; James C. Cole and Charles M. Eicholtz, both of Menallen township, and both 6 feet, 2 inches in height; Aaron Schlosser, of Biglerville, 6 feet, 1 inch; Hugh Topper and F. W. Topper, both of McSherrytown and both 6 feet, 1 inch. Brady Sefton, of Gettysburg, is also listed as an inch over six feet in height. Allen Spellman, of Washington township, Franklin County, secured his permit through the local office. He is three inches over the six foot mark.

Considerable amusement is shown in Treasurer Spangler's office when the questions required by the state commission are put to the applicants. "What is the color of your hair?" "What is your height?" "What is the color of your eyes?" These are only a few of the questions which are asked the hunters.

AUDITORIUM OPENS

Opening Night at New Amusement Place Draws Many People.

The Garden Auditorium had a most auspicious opening Monday evening when several hundred people wended their way to the new place of amusement on Hanover street. The Fire Company were given the use of the place the first night and the Citizens' Band contributed music for the dancing which kept up until well on toward midnight. Roller skating and dancing will be the order from now on. The building is large and well lighted, with ample seating capacity and it will doubtless prove an attractive resort for the young people of town.

Mr. Walter received a new electric player piano by express this morning from Washington. The roller skating will start this evening.

Little Daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Ott is Hurt.

Her parents did not know at once that the bone was broken and as the pain continued she was taken to a doctor, who at once found the break and set the fracture. The young lady is getting along nicely now. This is the first serious accident to occur at the playgrounds.

Only one apple of each variety is to be included in each exhibit.

The full entertainment program will be announced shortly.

The largest load taken into Waynesboro Saturday on that town's Farmers' Day was from Adams County. There were 128 in the load in charge of H. S. Stein, of Fairfield. The party took a well filled lunch box and made the wagon their headquarters. Two flat wagons were constructed into one long vehicle. They drew up in the Square at 11:30 a. m. The party drove a distance of fourteen miles before getting into the town.

Waynesboro had 5,000 visitors for its Farmers' Day.

STRANGE WASHOUT

Washout on Railroad Made Track in Shape of Y.

A very peculiar washout occurred on the Hanover Junction line of the Western Maryland Railway about one-fourth mile east of Strickhouser's last week, during the heavy rainfall. The railroad which at this place follows the creek was torn from its roadbed and carried out towards the stream, forming a perfect "Y." With the addition of a few rails where the original road bed had been, a train of cars could have been turned on the "Y" as though it had been constructed for that purpose. The trackmen are engaged in relaying the track.

GOV. SULZER'S DEFENSE OPENS

Lawyer Says Evidence Does Not Support Charges.

OPPONENTS SPRING SURPRISE

Allan Ryan Testifies He Gave $10,000 and Sulzer Sought Aid of Barnes to Halt Impeachment.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Harvey D. Hinman in a lengthy address opened Governor Sulzer's defense before the court of impeachment. He devoted considerable time to the power of impeachment. He attacked the inefficiency of the evidence offered by the prosecution. He said there was not a particle of evidence to support the articles of impeachment.

Coming down to the campaign contributions, Mr. Hinman said that there was nothing to show that Sulzer had been made the trustee of these funds. The case was novel, Mr. Hinman said, inasmuch as it was not charged that Sulzer had used any money to bring about his election corruptly.

The prosecution sprung a surprise on the defense by asking the court for permission to reopen its case and present more testimony.

It had been expected that the speech of Harvey D. Hinman, opening the case for the defense, would be the first proceeding, but this was upset when Presiding Judge Cullen granted the motion of the prosecution, despite the protest of Governor Sulzer's counsel.

In the new evidence offered by the prosecution another unreported campaign contribution of $10,000 developed. I. V. McGlone testified that he handed Sulzer a campaign contribution of $10,000 from his employer, Allan A. Ryan, a son of Thomas F. Ryan, the financier, last October.

Allan A. Ryan testified that Sulzer requested him to go to Washington and ask Senator Root to use his influence to get William Barnes to attempt to induce Republican senators of the impeachment court to hold that the impeachment proceedings were invalid.

Judge Herrick, of the governor's counsel, inquired the names of the witnesses the assembly board of managers' counsel wished to testify. "Allan A. Ryan, I. V. McGlone, Roland B. Mahoney and Mr. James," replied Mr. Stanchfield. Mr. McGlone is Ryan's secretary. Mr. Mahoney is a former congressman from Buffalo.

Judge Herrick protested against admitting this evidence. He said the witnesses had been available for a week. "I think it should be admitted," declared Judge Cullen, and Mr. Stanchfield called Mr. Ryan to the stand. Mr. Ryan said he first met Governor Sulzer "some time before he was nominated" and met him again about Dec. 12. "I talked with him over the telephone about the middle of October," continued the witness. "Mr. Sulzer endeavored several times to—"

This was stricken out, and there followed a controversy between the witnesses, Judge Herrick and Mr. Stanchfield concerning the identification of the person with whom Mr. Ryan talked over the telephone. Mr. Ryan then said he knew it was Governor Sulzer talking, because the operator in his office told him Mr. Sulzer wanted to speak with him.

Mr. Ryan said he had a conversation with the governor "a few days before this court convened." It was held, he declared, "in a certain room at 115 Broadway, New York, to which the governor directed me to go. I believed this room was in the office of a lawyer named Frankenstein."

Governor Sulzer's former law office was at 115 Broadway, and Samuel I. Frankenstein was Governor Sulzer's law partner.

Mr. Ryan was temporarily excused and Mr. McGlone was called to the witness stand. He said he had been private secretary to Thomas F. Ryan for twelve years. He said he had talked with Governor Sulzer in October, 1912. He said Sulzer spoke about his campaign and said he needed money, about $7500 or as much more as he could get. McGlone then said after consulting with Allan Ryan he handed the governor ten $1000 bills.

Edward P. Mealy, a New York lawyer, told how Sulzer had come to him and requested a loan before his election. He said he loaned $10,000, but took no collateral or note for the loan.

INDEPENDENTS CUT PRICES OF STEEL

The New Tariff is Believed to Be Responsible.

New York, Oct. 7.—According to reports in the financial district independent steel and iron manufacturers are quoting further reductions in prices of manufactured products in this market and New England.

A cut of $2 a ton in steel plates and sheet steel was reported, and other reductions were said to be in contemplation.

So far as is known the United States Steel corporation has not deviated from its recent schedule nor has it intimated any change of policy. Price reductions have been more or less general for several weeks, but the new tariff is believed to be directly responsible for the lower prices of the last few days.

Leading representatives of the trade unhesitatingly declared that much of the adverse comment and rumor dealing with conditions was manufactured for ulterior purposes. The Steel corporation and some of the large independent companies were said to be working their mills at between 80 and 90 per cent of capacity. The Steel corporation, it was stated, had enough business on hand to warrant work up to at least 80 per cent of capacity until well into 1914.

Officials of the corporation are watching the effect of the new tariff law, but are of the opinion that they will be able to hold their business against foreign competition. They admit that foreign manufacturers may cut into trade along the seaboard, but will be unable to compete for inland trade because of the heavy freight charges.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Shoots Her in Presence of Daughter and Puts Bullet into Own Brain.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—James Convery shot and killed his wife Mary and then fired a bullet into his own brain.

The woman died on the steps of the Catholic Church of St. Charles Borromeo, Twentieth and Christian streets, where the shooting occurred. Convery died two hours later in the Polyclinic hospital.

The shooting was seen by Mary Savage, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Convery by a former marriage. Mrs. Convery was waiting for a car to take her to the Arcade building, where she was employed as a scrub woman.

Convery recently was released from prison, where he had served six months for theft. He had not been living with his wife for several weeks. The police say Convery was crazed with drink.

POLICE DOUBT MURDER TALE

Chicago Detectives Believe
Spencer Exaggerates Crimes.

MAKES NEW CONFESSION

Bluebeard Declares He "Killed So
Many I Cannot Remember All."
Robbery Was His Motive.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—While the police are convinced that Harry Spencer is guilty of many murders besides that of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, they were forced to conclude that his statement of murdering twenty-five persons is an exaggeration.

Spencer is addicted to the opium habit, a symptom of which is grotesque imagination. Some years ago the police learned that while he was in prison at Joliet on a charge of larceny the prison authorities had regarded him as mentally defective and from time to time had confined him in the infirmary. He told fellow prisoners of having committed several murders.

Press dispatches from Detroit, Delavan Lake, Wis., and Goshen, N. Y., further shook official faith in the confessions. Investigations at these three points, while not absolutely disproving Spencer's statements, indicated that there was little likelihood that they were true.

An investigation which will require some time will be necessary, it is said, before it can be determined just how much of the prisoner's tale is true and how much fiction.

"Some of his tales probably are fiction," said Captain Halpin, "but on the whole I believe he is almost as great a criminal as he claims to be."

Spencer made a second and new confession, in which he related new killings. He was uncertain as to two of the murders, but told Captain Halpin a circumstantial tale of each of the others. He made the second statement after he had been kept awake all night, reciting what the detectives declared to be the most remarkable tale of crime in history.

"I hit 'em with a hammer or shot 'em, whichever was near," he said.

Following his arrest for the Rexroat murder, which was made at the home of a woman who had notified the police of his coming, detectives went to Spencer's room, where they found the ratty suit case which the tango teacher had taken with her on her fatal trip to Wayne. She was lured there on the pretext that she was to instruct a class in the new dance. In it was part of her clothing, and not far away the revolver with which Spencer killed her.

Then began his extraordinary recital of the murders he has committed. Spencer asserted that he had the night Spencer asserted he had sent the following to their graves and told repeatedly the manner of their going, although he admitted the list was not complete:

Two farmers beaten to death at Zion City, Ill., and their bodies thrown into Lake Michigan.

Man and wife, at Round Lake, who had lost their way trying to walk to Fox Lake; beaten to death and robbed.

Timothy Devine and Charles Pennell, policemen, shot in August, 1902, when they surprised Spencer and a man named Murphy breaking into a house. Murphy now dead.

Fanny Thompson, body found Jan. 1, 1908, gagged and bound in bed in a Michigan avenue rooming house. Robbed of diamonds worth $1200.

Former wife, Walkerville, Ontario. Beaten to death and body burned. Former New York widow, name forgotten.

Mrs. Connors, killed at St. Joseph, Mich., and robbed of jewelry.

Former wife, near Fort Montgomery, N. Y., beaten to death in woods. Robbed of $300 and diamonds worth $800.

Former maid to Helen Gould.

Aged man in Washington Park, last spring. Shot and body thrown into lagoon. Got $200 in cash.

Two women at Delavan Lake, Wis., in June. Killed with hammer and the bodies thrown into lake.

Woman in house near county hospital, used hammer and burned clothes. Got $140 and rings.

Woman in house at Fulton and Halstead streets about eight months ago. Used hammer and burned clothing. Robbed house.

Saloonkeeper on Van Buren street, near Aberdeen. Shot man and wound wife while robbing saloon.

Man, shot and killed in alley under South Side elevated railroad about a year ago.

Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, shot near Wayne, Sept. 25, and body placed on railroad tracks.

It was discovered in the police records that Spencer was in prison at Joliet when Fannie Thompson was murdered, Jan. 1, 1908. The records show that he went to the prison in 1906 and was not paroled until 1910.

It is practically certain also that he was behind the bars at Joliet when Detectives Pennell and Devine were murdered.

Although he is now said to be a Philadelphian, "Spencer" declared to the police in his confession that he was a Chicago product. He is short, weighs about 145 pounds, wears glasses and has the appearance of a clerk whose life has known little excitement.

Value of Rheuma From the Court

Judge Barhorst was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Loraine, O.:

"After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now twenty years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, waking with crutches."

Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents of People's Drug Store guaranteed.

BIG YORK FAIR

Will Exceed None in State If Expectations Materialize.

Though exhibition buildings had been enlarged to provide against overcrowding, the 65 acres of York's sixtieth annual fair are now filled to their capacity with exhibits on the day of the opening of the gates. "It will be the greatest fair Pennsylvania ever saw," the officials predicted.

The poultry show, with 1200 entries declared to be second only to Madison Square Garden, New York, in the quality of its attractions, is filled to the last coop, and about 1500 birds were turned away. These were mainly the stock of the professional exhibitors.

With 241 trotting and pacing entries in addition to 50 in the running events, the track program is ahead of anything York has offered in the past. BANDITS SHOOT CASHIER

Get $10,600, But Posse Later Finds Money in a Cemetery.
New London, Conn., Oct. 7.—Carl Koelb, cashier for the American Velvet company, of Stonington, accompanied by Charles Ryan, was held up by two masked men in linen dusters. The bandits leveled a gun at Koelb, who was shot twice, once in the wrist and again in the hand, and then robbed him of $10,600, two weeks' pay for the mills from the First National bank. Ryan was unharmed by the robbers, who then escaped.
The mill shut down when informed of the robbery, and all the employees formed a posse, assisted by the local sheriffs. After searching some time the money was found hidden in the cemetery.

PROMISES FREEDOM TO THE FILIPINOS

Harrison Takes Up Duties as Governor General.

Manila, Oct. 7.—Francis Burton Harrison, newly appointed governor general of the Philippines, arrived on the steamship Manchuria.
He was greeted by several thousand persons, many of whom had come from the provinces. Several of the welcoming delegations were accompanied by bands.
The Manchuria was met down the harbor by a flotilla of steam launches, one of which took out Newton W. Gilbert, of Fort Wayne, Ind., the vice governor.

Governor General Harrison, on landing, drove from the pier by a roundabout route to the Luneta, where he delivered his inaugural address.

Harrison's address embodied instructions received from President Wilson through Secretary Garrison stating broadly the administration's policy toward the Philippines. The instructions thus embodied in the address were as follows:

"We regard ourselves as trustees, acting not for the advantage of the United States, but for the benefit of the people of the Philippine Islands. Every step we take will be taken with a view to the ultimate independence of the islands and as a preparation for that independence and we hope to move toward that end as rapidly as the safety and the permanent interests of the islands will permit. After each step taken experience will guide us to the next."

"The administration will take one step at once. It will give to the native citizens of the islands a majority in the appointive commission and thus in the upper as well as in the lower branch of the legislature.
"It will do this in the confident hope and expectation that immediate proof will thereby be given in the action of the commission under the new arrangement of the political capacity of those native citizens who have already come forward to represent and lead their people in affairs."

BANKERSTOPROBE CURRENCY BILL

American Association Convenes in Boston.

NEARLY 5000 ARE PRESENT

Many Think Country Institutions Have Not Been Given Sufficient Consideration.

Boston, Oct. 7.—The meeting of the country bankers here stood out as the first important event in connection with the thirty-ninth annual convention of the American Bankers' association, which has brought to Boston nearly five thousand bankers from all parts of the United States.

The meeting was called by a number of prominent country bankers for the purpose of discussing the currency bill now before congress.

"Thus far," said Gordon Jones, president of the First National bank, of Littleton, Colo., and one of the signers of the call, "the bill has been considered mainly from the viewpoint of the large banks in the reserve cities. It is desired to give the country bankers an opportunity to consider certain features which apply particularly to their own business."

"By country banks is meant the small banks, those of $250,000 capital and less; the little fellows in the one and two bank towns, out on the agricultural and industrial firing line. Such banks compose at least 75 per cent of all the banks of the United States."

Consideration of the currency bill is expected to be the dominant feature of the regular sessions of the association, which opens tomorrow.

MUST NOT WEAR AIGRETTES

Cannot Be Imported, Even on Women's Heads, Say Officials.

Washington, Oct. 7.—A woman entering the United States wearing an aigrette on her hat violates the new tariff law just as much as a man with a pound of opium in his pocket.

That is the unofficial view of officers who have asked the New York customs house for details of seizures of plumes from hats of trans-Atlantic passengers there Saturday.

Senator Simmons, who commanded the tariff fight in the senate, does not agree with the view that the snatching of aigrettes from women's hats, as was done by customs inspectors in New York Saturday, was intended by the tariff act.

"I think such a course is beyond all reason," said the senator. "There is nothing in the law to justify such a course, and the framers of the bill never intended that such action should be taken."

FATHER SHOTS SON

Lad Climbs Chestnut Tree and Parent Takes Him For Squirrel.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 7.—While out squirrel hunting in Harford county, C. M. Dalton, a farmer, accidentally shot his son, John, thirteen years old, while the latter was up on a tree.

The father and son had been hunting and the son started for home ahead of the parent. The boy, however, instead of going straight home climbed a tree to get some chestnuts.

When the father came along the boy made a noise like a squirrel and shook some leaves on a branch of the tree. The father, thinking a squirrel was perched on a branch, fired his gun at it. The boy is not seriously injured.

Calder was a bachelor, sixty-six years old, and became a member of the fire department when he was twenty-one years old. His pay was gradually increased from $700 a year to $1150 a year. He never varied from his original expenses of $500 a year, and the balance of his pay he put in bank.
